- 200 SMA trend deciding level exist at 24772

Indian Equity Market Performance

Indian equity markets ended Tuesday's session lower after four consecutive sessions of gains. Investors booked profits at higher levels as Middle East worries persisted and oil prices rebounded from three- week lows following mixed messages regarding U.S.-Iran peace negotiations.

Sectoral Front Performance

On sectoral front, except metal and media, all other sectoral indices ended in the red with Information Technology, Oil & Gas, Realty, Infra, Private Bank, Consumer Durables, FMCG down 0.5-2 percent.

Technical Analysis

Nifty 50 formed a small bearish candle with a long lower shadow on the daily chart, indicating buying interest at lower levels despite profit booking. The index continued to trade above all key moving averages and remained above the downward-sloping trendline, reflecting the strength of the prevailing uptrend.The RSI slipped to 62 but held above its reference line, while the MACD maintained its upward momentum after a bullish crossover, suggesting that the broader trend remains positive.The index is expected to remain in a consolidation phase as long as it stays below Monday's high of 24,744. Immediate support is placed in the 24,500-24,400 zone, while a decisive move above 24,744 could push the index towards the 25,000-25,150 range.

Option Activity

On option front, maximum Put OI is at 24000 followed by 24500 strike, while maximum Call OI is at 24600 followed by 25000 strike. Call writing was seen at 24600 strike, followed by 24500 strike while Put writing was seen at 24000 strike, followed by 24500.

Recognized as a "Research Entity" under SEBI (Research Analyst) Regulations 2014 since 2015 (Registration No. INH000000206), ASSL operates as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Ashika Global Securities (P) Ltd., a non-deposit-taking NBFC company registered with the Reserve Bank of India (RBI). The broader Ashika Group, with detailed information available on our website (www.ashikagroup.com), serves as an integrated financial service provider involved in diverse activities, including Investment Banking, Corporate Lending, Debt Syndication, and other advisory services.

Over the past three years, ASSL has not faced any substantial or material disciplinary actions imposed by regulatory authorities. Nonetheless, routine inspections conducted by SEBI, Exchanges, and Depositories have identified certain operational deviations. In response to these observations, advisory letters or minor penalties have been issued by the relevant authorities.

DISCLOSURE

ASSL prepares and distributes research reports solely in its capacity as a Research Analyst under SEBI (Research Analyst) Regulations 2014. The disclosures and disclaimer provided herein are integral components of all research reports being disseminated.

1) ASSL, its associates, and its Research Analysts (including their relatives) may hold a financial interest in the subject company(ies). This financial interest extends beyond merely having an open stock market position and may include acting as an advisor to, or having a loan transaction with, the subject company(ies), in addition to being registered as clients.

2) ASSL and its Research Analysts (including their relatives) do not possess any actual or beneficial ownership of 1% or more of securities in the subject company(ies) at the conclusion of the month immediately preceding the publication date of the source research report or the date of the relevant public appearance. Nevertheless, it is noted that associates of ASSL may hold actual or beneficial ownership of 1% or more of securities in the subject company(ies).

3) ASSL and its Research Analysts (including their relatives) do not possess any other material conflict of interest at the time of publishing the source research report or the date of the relevant public appearance. It is important to note, however, that associates of ASSL may have an actual or potential conflict of interest, distinct from ownership considerations.

4) ASSL or its associates may have received compensation for investment banking, merchant banking, and brokerage services, from the subject companies within the preceding 12 months. However, it is important to clarify that neither ASSL, its associates, nor its Research Analysts (who are part of the Research Desk) have received any compensation or other benefits from the subject companies or third parties in relation to the specific research report or research recommendation. Furthermore, Research Analysts have not received any compensation from the companies mentioned in the research report or recommendation over the past twelve months.

5) The subject companies featured in the research report or recommendation may be a current client of ASSL or may have been a client within the twelve months preceding the date of the relevant public appearance, particularly for investment banking, merchant banking, or brokerage services.

6) ASSL or its Research Analysts have not been involved in managing or co-managing public offerings of securities for the subject company(ies) within the past twelve months. However, it is worth noting that associates of ASSL may have managed or co-managed public offerings of securities for the subject company(ies) in the past twelve months.

7) Research Analysts have not held positions as officers, directors, or employees of the companies mentioned in the report or recommendation.

8) Neither ASSL nor its Research Analysts have been engaged in market making activity for the companies mentioned in the report / recommendation.
